Nearly all of the afternoon session was consumed in the discussion of the "seed bill" introduced by Mr. Frown, of Bedford. The measure provides that all seedle sold for agricultural and garden purposes shall be guaranteed and if desired by the farmers shall be guaranteed and if desired by the farmers shall be analyzed at the flankshung Collego. The bill was advocated by Measra Brown, of Bedford, and Thomas, while Measra Ryan, Fileher, Wright, and Shackelford opposed it. The latter said that the farmers, as they were in the majority, could pass any measure by concerted action, but he advocated them not to pass the bill. It was defeated.

The following Senate bills were passed: To amend and re-senate section 20 an act outsided an act to incorporate the Staley's Creek and Manganese from Company, approved May 21, 1587; to authorize the frusiess of the Sodiety of Friends to convey to John M. Silver a certain lot in Frederick county; to amend and re-senate section 2022 of the Code of Virginia in relation to unlawful hunting in the counties of Alexandria, Fairfax, Prince William, Stafford, and king George; for the relief of Susan C. Mayo, the widow of Thomas T. Mayo, a Confederate soldier; to provide for the removal of pending causes from the Corporation Court for such corporation; to silow W. T. Osborne to erect a wharf on Chuckattek creek; to amend and re-enact section 280, dapter 43, of the Code of Virginia in relation to county roads; to authorize the Board of Supervisors of Appomatica county to horrow $10,000; for the protection of sheep in the county of Henrice.

The following House bills were passed; To amend and re-enact section 28 of chapter 244 of an act approved March 6, 1890, in relation to license; for the relief of indigent persons sufferion from disease of the eye. It was adopted, air was recoted until 4:30, ag that the Mason railroad reported from the Commit-amendment, be taken up. In Session of Nigot.

The night session of the House was devoted entirely to the discussion of the appropriation for the World's Fair, which came up in the general appropriation bill. The House adjourned before any final decision was reached.

Mr. Munford commenced the debate, He moved to amend the clause in the budget which read $25,000 per year for the next two years so that it would be reduced to $15,000 per annum. Mr. Flood expressed surprise that the gentleman from Charles City should have introduced an amendment which had been virtually defreated in the flouse. What the people wanted was not so much a commission, but laws that would give the people a remedy for grievances. He respectfully submitted that the bill under discussion met this demand. Perhaus there was a greater desire for commissioners, but there was a greater desire for realread laws.

The amendment was rejected by a vote of syes 13, nows, 20.

Mr. Tyler then moved to strike out all the first section between line 12 and line 10.

Mr. Fixed explained that the section was the exact language of the interstate commerce act.

Mr. Wickham said the section was essential to the life of the railroads. It was put in the lower-state commerce law by a Democratic member of the United States Senste, passed by a Democratic House of Representatives, and approved by a Democratic House of Representatives, and approved by a Democratic Precident.

Mr. Tyler replied that the people of the State did not stop to ask whether there was a United States law when they wented relief from a grievance. This was not a matter to be laughed supercitiously down the winds. The railroads land a power that even the sovernign State of Virginia could not avernies. But the senator from Hanover would raile out that the people would rise in their might and demand a railroad commission.

House of Delegates.

The proceedings of the House were not so interesting as those of preceding days, as most of the time was consumed in discussing the appropriation bill.

The fellowing House bills were passed: To incurporate the Roanoke-Valley Railroad Company; to incorporate the Norfolk and Newport News Ferry Company; to allow C. W. Woolfolk, treasurer of Orange county, further time to oblice taxes; for the protection of discharged employees; extending the time for the construction of the Fetersburg and Chesterfield railroad and re-emacting the set approved February 18, 1800. The following Senate bills were passed: Fer the relief of William Isom, Jr., personal representative and estate; for the relief of John M. kinney, of Augusta county; to incorporate the East Virginia and Thewater Railroad Company; to amend and re-enact the tenth cub-division of to West Manchester and thence across to Forest-Hill Paris.

Andge B. A. Hancock held a special term of the Circuit Court of Chesterfield yesterday to try the case of F. C. Jackson against Heary Gle-son. This is a suit for $5,600 damages for breach of contract. The declaration alleges that the plaintiff and defendant entered into an agreement by which the defendant was to allow the plaintiff to make tests of certain fire-brick cisy on the lands of the defendant, and if the clay proved suimble the defendant would lease the property to the plaintiff for ten years for the purpose of manufacturing fire-bricks, and that after the tests were made the defendant re-fused to comply with his contract. The Court also accepted the fall recently exceted by the Van Dorn Juli Building Company of Onlo.

The colored woman Rich says that a man very much resembling Searing was with him at City Point. This is supposed to be the man Lewis who is said to have left New York with him. He has not been seen since. Walters says Lewis was well known in New York, and nothing wrong was suspected about him. His opinion, however, is that, young Searing being in bad health, consumptive, despondent, committed suicide. He spoke very highly of Searing; said he was a man of generous disposition, of high character, and so sensitive that even under the most pressing circumstances he would never accept of a dollar from his most intimate friend.

Erndita Teacher Passes Away. [Special telegram to the Dispatch.] FARRYLLE, VA., March 1.—Rev. James F. Latimer, D. D., LL. D. of the Union Theological Seminary, died at 11 o'clock last night at Hampden-Sidney; aged 47

In the latter part of October a colored woman named Lezize Rich, living at City Point, according to her statement, says she was approached by a young man who asked her to tell him where General Grant's headquarters were during the war. She directed him the route to take to them, and received a piece of money as a reward. He started in that direction and that was the last time she saw or heard of him until the body was found, she identified the clothing on the body as that worn by the man who had spoken to her, and to-day, when shown by Mr. Walters the photograph of Mr. Searing, at once identified it as that of the young man who had asked the information from her.

Mr. Walters suys that before he left New York Mr. Searing purchased an overcome with a cape. The latter he threw aside and never wore, and Mr. Walters brought the cape on with him to compare with the cape on with him to compare with the cape on with him to compare with the cape of with the coat which was found with the body. The pants and vest of the wore was a present from Miss Weeks, its before he left New York. Her identification of these articles almost overcame the young lady with grief and emotion, and yet both she and Mr. Walters felt relief in the fact that the long anxiety over the descape having been torn from them by buzzards and hous. In his letter from Riemmond he wrote that his feet were troubling him very much, and that he had cut his shoes for rollef. The identity of Searing's clothing and effects being complete, all doubt in the waste of the barkentine Whiten are under water and and the vessel and cargo are a total loss. The Merritt Wrecking Company have made arrangements to strip her as soon as possible. Captain John R. Potter arrived here and moted protest. The crew are still at the life-saving station.

The fleet of steamers from North Caro-lins, delayed for a week on account of the high winds and low water, are arriving

THE DISABLED STEAMERS. The Merritt Wrecking Company are now working on the San Albano at Hog Island and the Bonavista a Willoughby Spit. The departure of the large fleet of wind-bound vessels from Hampton Roads to-day was a magnificent eight. ANOTHER DISCHARGE.

There was another discharge of work-men from the navy-yard last night, owing to the advanced condition of the new ships. There are about 1,600 men now on the pay-rolls of the yard. The steam en-gmeeting department has scarcely any work at all on hand. WEATHER-BOUND TACRES.

WEATHER BOUND TACHTS.

The steam-yacht Gretchen, with Hon. John E. Rayborn and party of Washington gentiemen on board, and the schooner-yacht Conondo, with a party of Philadelphia yachters, are weather-bound at Durant's island.

The Portsmouth and Norfolk Elks returned from Danville to-day.

Mr. J. W. Wood, of New York, general secretary of the St. Andrew's Brotherhood of the United States, is here in the interest of the brotherhood.

The disabled British steamship Timer will come up to Norfolk to discharge her cargo of fruit from Sicily and she will go into the dry-dock at Newport News.

John Pattram Cannon dropped dead at the home of his son, on Lovitt avenue, to-day. Deceased was in the 67th year of his age.

MARTIN'S ATTEMPTED SUICIDE.

He Gashos His Threat While on the Vergs of Delirium Tremens—Tobacco Sales.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.]

LYNCHBURG, Va., March 1.—George Martin, a well-known man, and for months past advertising solicitor for the Roanoke Times, attempted suicide here to-day at a boarding-house on Main street. Martin has been in this city several days on a spree, and was on the verge of delirium tremens when he committed the rash act. He gashed his throat in a terrible manner, but the knife was dull and he failed to infict a fatal wound. He was arrested and will be held until he is sobered up. Martin for years ran an anti-prohibition maper in Atlants, Ga. Later he was an advertising solicitor on the Baltimore American, whence he went to Roanoke, where he became advertising agent of the Times. He left that position a month ago. Once

Mr. Harter, of Ohio, was confident of defeating the resolution assigning a day for the frae-sitver bill, but he gave no figures or names to justify his fath.

Republicans who have been interviewed will give no comfort to anybody. Exception is made in the case of Mr. fartine, of Nevada, the most active free-silver-comage man on the Republican side of the House. He sticks to his original belief that ten Republicans will always be found voting for free silver, especially as no caucus action either way has been taken on the subject.

subject.
Mr. Pierce, Mr. Bland, and other silver men express undiminished confidence in their ability to defeat on a vote any propo-sition looking to the shelving or defeat of the free-silver bill.

What We Owe. Washington, March L.—The public debt statement issued to-day shows that the interest- and non-interest-bearing debt decreased during the month $1.703,403, and that the cash balance in the Treasury necrosed $783,745. The not cash balance is new $32,-162,204. Total cash in the Treasury $2,00.547,518; aggregate of debt, $1.593,501,804. The amount of guld, silver, and currency efficiates and treasury notes of 1896 (bullon purchase notes) has increased $15,825,892 during the mouth of February.

ONE ENJOYS Both the method and results when Syrup of Figs is taken; it is pleasant and refreshing to the taste, and acts gently yet promptly on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels, cleanses the sys-tem effectually, dispels colds, head-aches and fevers and cures habitual constipation. Syrup of Figs is the only remedy of its kind ever produced, pleasing to the taste and acceptable to the stomach, prompt in its action and truly beneficial in its effects, prepared only from the most healthy and agreeable substances, its many excellent qualities commend it to all and have made it the most popular remedy known.

Byrup of Figs is for sale in 50c and $1 bottles by all leading druggists. Any reliable druggist who may not have it on hand will procure it promptly for any one who wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

Shelburns had a very full break composed of darks and brights, as did Planters' Warshouse also. Some excellent Prince Edward and Luneaburg dark, mottled, and bright tobscoos were sold to-day, and with such a large and diversified offering deliy it is a wonder our manufacturers do not follow the sales more promptly and persistently. This tobacco is here for their benefit and it should be resilized and appreciated. Shelburn's sold up to 30c, for brights and 11c, for darks to-day. Brights are a little easy, fillers are cheap enough, cutters were off, wrappars sold fairly well.
